

A seminar on

“SCIENTIFIC WRITING AND PUBLICATION”

Venue: PG Program, IAAS, Kirtipur

Date: 2022-06-28

Time: 11 am

Targeted audience: Postgraduate students and faculty of IAAS

Seats: Limited seats so please confirm your participation before 27th of June.

For details and RSVP : Mahesh Jaishi (9851242082), Director, Directorate of Extension

Brief bio of the presenter: Pradeep Wagle, PhD

Interdisciplinary Research Agronomist, United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), Oklahoma, USA

President, Association of Nepalese Agricultural Professionals of Americas (NAPA)

IAAS Alumni (BScAg, IAAS, Rampur Campus)

Dr. Pradeep Wagle is an internationally recognized scientist on biosphere-atmosphere interactions, carbon and water cycles of terrestrial ecosystems, and remote sensing of vegetation as documented in >70 SCI indexed peer-reviewed articles and >100 conference abstracts. He received Ph.D. in Crop Science from Oklahoma State University, USA. Dr. Wagle has received Certificate of Merits/Outstanding Performance Awards from the USDA for consecutive years for his exceptional research and professional achievements. As an adjunct faculty, he also supervises/mentors graduate students and postdoctoral researchers at Oklahoma State University and the University of Oklahoma. He is an Associate Editor for the Remote Sensing Journal, an Editorial Board Member for the Agricultural and Forest Meteorology Journal and Global Journal of Agricultural and Allied Sciences, and a reviewer for myriad professional journals.